

UNIVERSIDAD AUTÓNOMA DE COAHUILA

light dreamy, while I pondered weak and weary,
and curious volume of forgotten lore,
only rapping, suddenly there came a tapping,
erly, rapping at my chamber door.
I muttered, 'Tapping at my chamber door -
What is the meaning of this tapping more.'

number it was, like a muffled drum,
the dying ember of a fire upon the floor
a muffled drum - faintly
crow - faintly
then when the door
opened, there came a knocking.

WHAT'S HAPPENING?

BLOQUE III

BLOCK III: What's Happening

INTRODUCTION

In Block II you have learned and practiced the use of the Simple Present. Once everything is clear it is time to move on and learn about the Present Progressive. It is easy, its matter of paying attention and practicing. You will also learn some more vocabulary: clothes, weather, countries, global dimming and body parts.

GENERAL COMPETENCE OF THE BLOCK

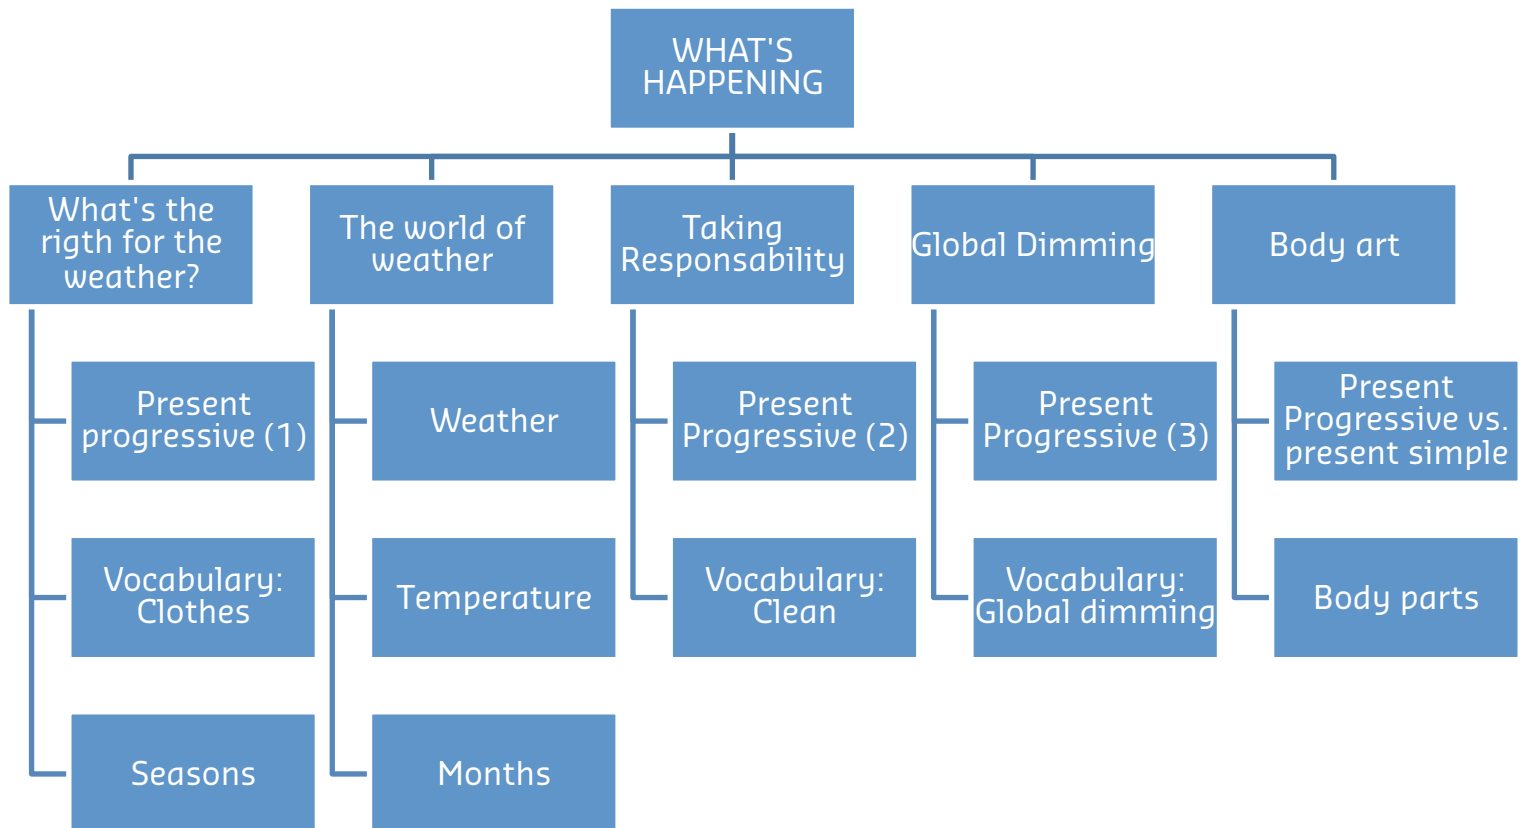

Manages the Present progressive to discuss about weather, clothing, environmental problems, animals at risk and body parts through the uses of communicative skills in a respectful manner.
