WHAT'S THAT?

UNIT III. WHAT'S THAT?

INTRODUCTION TO THE UNIT

In this unit, you will learn how to talk about the objects, places, and things around you. We use English every day to name objects, describe what we have, and talk about what we like or want. This unit will give you the words and expressions to talk about your possessions, your clothes, the weather, your favorite things, and even your dreams.

You will also learn how to ask questions like “What’s this?” and “What do you call that in English?”, which are useful when you’re learning new vocabulary. We will talk about seasons, opinions, and places you would like to visit – making your English more real, personal, and practical.

This unit connects what you see every day with what you feel and think. It’s about recognizing the world around you, expressing your preferences, and sharing your ideas with others.

Let’s explore your surroundings and your imagination in English!

UNIT OBJECTIVE

By the end of this unit, students will be able to:

- Ask about and name everyday objects in English.
- Identify items in their daily life using simple vocabulary.
- Ask how to say something in English.
- Describe their clothes and personal possessions.
- Express preferences and describe their favorite things.
- Talk about the weather and seasons using basic phrases.
- Share opinions politely and clearly.
- Talk about activities or places they would like to experience.

This unit helps students develop confidence in asking questions, recognizing objects, sharing thoughts, and using English in real-world, everyday situations.
