UNIT I

Introduction Unit I

INTRODUCTION

This unit introduces you to essential but useful lexis and grammar for basic everyday communication in English, as well as for further learning.

In order to help you organize your knowledge by creating a “language mind scheme”, you will be exposed to structure terminology such as tense, adverb, adjective, noun, among many others. For this, remember to take advantage of as many extra materials as you require.

La presente unidad te ayudará a interiorizar léxico y gramática esencial pero muy útil para la comunicación cotidiana en inglés, así como en futuros contenidos.

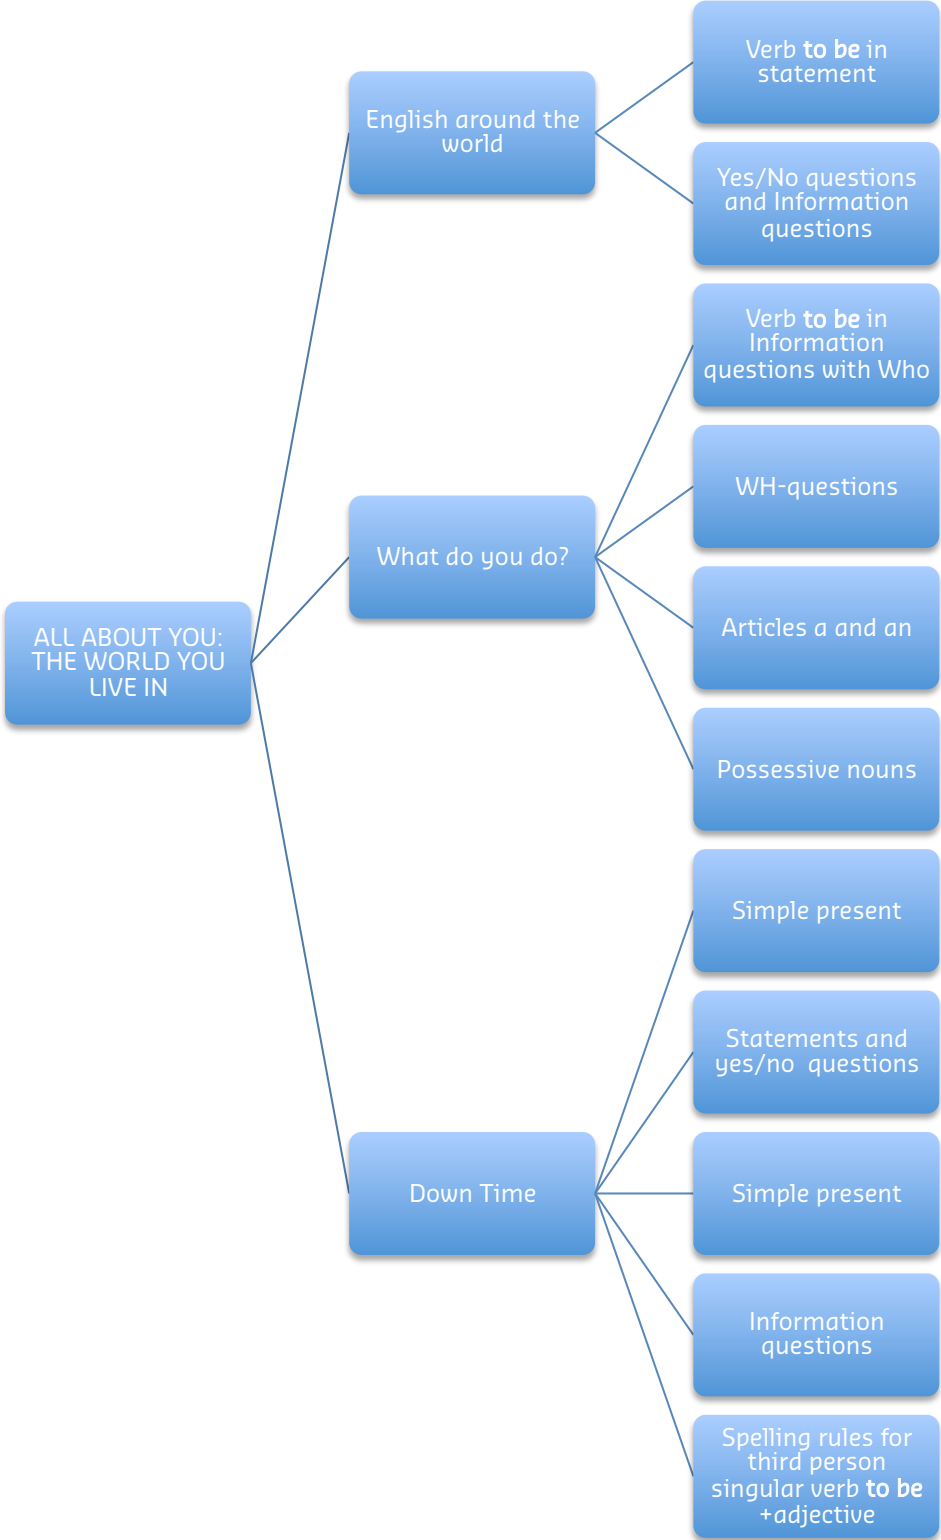

Para que organices apropiadamente tu conocimiento dentro de un esquema mental de lenguaje que sea coherente, te podrás apoyar en terminología relacionada con estructuras de la lengua, tales como tense, adverb, adjective, noun, entre muchas otras. Para esto, recuerda aprovechar todo el material extra que requieras.

OBJECTIVES

The learner will be able to apply the verb to be in Yes/No, and Information Questions accurately, making use of communication strategies and polite language. The learner will develop pronunciation skills by studying and pronouncing the letters of the alphabet adequately, and the s use in third person Simple Present Statements.
